The Stage is themed by the discovery of the remains of Shakespeare's Curtain Theatre dating back to 1577

Images of site excavation courtesy of Museum of London Archaeology.

The unique historical context of The Stage heralds it as the first World Heritage Site in East London.

The remains were discovered in 2011 lying three metres below the surface of the development.

Archaeologists now believe they could be the best preserved examples of an Elizabethan theatre in the UK.

We know Shakespeare wrote at least 37 plays – two of his greatest, Romeo & Juliet and Henry V, were premiered at the Curtain Theatre.

After 7 years of painstaking work, Shakespeare's Playhouse will once again come alive – to provide London's greatest legacy to the world's greatest playwright.
